Boys' Questions Stump Collins

RAY COLLINS, pitcher of the Boston Red Sox, world's champions, addressed an attentive class of boys on baseball at the Greenwich Settlement House, 26 Jones street, last night. In answer to his request to ask questions one youngster's query was: "How does it feel to pitch against Ty Cobb wit' de bases jammed?" Collins decided that it was a trifle unpleasant. There followed a fusillade of questions, ranging from "Is it true that Germany Schaefer was a drummer boy in the Revolutionary War?" to "How much moisture does Ed Walsh use on his spitter?" The boys asked who was the better. Ty Cobb asked who was the better, Ty Cobb or Honus Wagner, and they appeared incredulous when Collins said he had never seen the Flying Dutchman.
